

KAMLOOPS EXPLORATION GROUP

Lecture Series - Goes Virtual!

KEG will be using Zoom Webinar to host the 2021 Lecture Series. Zoom is a free app that you can download to your smartphone or home computer. The link for joining the Zoom Webinars will be posted on our website along with detailed instructions. www.keg.bc.ca

Jan 14 – Dr. Catherine Hickson - The 1980 Eruptions of Mount St. Helens; Forty Years and Counting!

Jan 28 – Phillip Currie - Polar Dinosaurs

Feb 11 – Roger C. Paulen - Modern Glacial Concepts Applied to Indicator Mineral Dispersal Trains

Feb 25 – Dr. Robert Young - You Are What You Eat – Or Are You? An Exploration of the Environments That Made Us Who We Are

Mar 11 – Lee Groat - Metamorphic and Magmatic Gem Deposits and Their Potential in British Columbia

Mar 25 – JoAnne Nelson - Location, Location, Location: Long-Lived Lineaments Provided Prime Real Estate for B.C.'s Cu-Au Porphyries

Apr 8 – Dr. Brent Peyton & Dr. Lisa Kirk – How – and Why - Do Natural Microbes Remove Nitrate and Selenium from Mine-Affected Water?

Apr 22 – Dr. Christopher West - The Red Lake Fossil Flora: A Miocene Forest From The Interior Plateau, British Columbia

Please note information is subject to change.