

Thank you to our 2023 KEG Virtual Lecture Series Sponsor

ELIZABETH HALL

Elizabeth Hall is the Assistant Palaeontologist with the Yukon Government Yukon Palaeontology Programme. She is a long time Yukoner and luckily for her, the Yukon has a long history. Her favourite epoch is the Quaternary and her favourite bones are often the grossest. When she is not looking for fossils, she can be found in her garden.