

Dr. Victoria Arbour

---

Dr. Victoria Arbour is the Curator of Palaeontology at the Royal BC Museum. She is a leading expert on the evolution and palaeobiology of the armoured dinosaurs known as ankylosaurs. She is honoured to be able to explore British Columbia's incredible fossil record and build new knowledge on the relatively unknown dinosaurs of this province.

